This prestigious accolade highlights the exceptional creativity and innovation demonstrated in the award-winning textile pattern, which seamlessly combines traditional Gulf imagery with a modern digital twist.

Palms

The A' Textile, Fabric, Textures, Patterns and Cloth Design Award holds significant relevance for the textile industry and its stakeholders. By recognizing designs that push the boundaries of creativity and functionality, the award sets new standards for excellence and inspires designers to explore innovative solutions. Palms by Inna Anishchenko - Anni Teriani exemplifies the potential of textile design to capture cultural heritage while embracing contemporary techniques, making it a valuable contribution to the field.

Palms stands out for its vibrant colors and intricate lines that bring the festive atmosphere of Gulf festivals to life. The textile pattern features a repeated motif of palm trees, symbolizing the abundance and prosperity of the region, while the asymmetrical composition adds a sense of movement and rhythm. Through digital enhancement, these elements are reimagined to create a visually striking design that celebrates the beauty of the Arabic Gulf.

The recognition bestowed upon Palms by the A' Textile, Fabric, Textures, Patterns and Cloth

Design Award serves as a testament to Inna Anishchenko - Anni Teriani's dedication to pushing the boundaries of textile design. This achievement is expected to inspire future projects within the brand, fostering further innovation and exploration of cultural themes. The award also motivates the designer to continue striving for excellence and creating designs that resonate with audiences on a deep level.

Palms was designed by textile pattern artist Inna Anishchenko, who is also the founder of the Anni Teriani brand.
