About Soriano Motori

Soriano Motori Corp. is the American parent company of the European manufacturing company, Soriano Motori Factory SpA. Soriano Motori Corp was established to bring about a modern edition to the vintage European motorcycle brand founded by Ricardo Soriano-Scholtz in 1919. Founded in 2020, Soriano Motori Corp seeks to create a legacy of invention and modernization. Engineers from the European Union and the USA united in a collaborative effort to recreate and bring back the motorcycles once designed by the same family namesake a century prior.

Soriano Motori is set to debut their latest electric motorcycle in Italy at EICMA in November 2020.[1] Soriano Motori Corporation currently manufactures their Giaguaro model in Italy, a 100% electric motorcycle with various trims including the Giaguaro V1 R, Giaguaro V1 S and its premium model the Giaguaro V1 GARA. The model name Giaguaro, Italian for jaguar[2], follows the traditional pattern of being named after a big cat. The Soriano Motori logo as well as the styling of the motorcycle's front fascia mimic that of a cat's face. SMC currently produces the Giaguaro at two equipped facilities in Monza & Lecco, towns surrounding Lake Como, Italy.
