KC Meleski, President, CME Corp.

Says CME Corp. President, KC Meleski, "I am incredibly proud and honored that we have been named one of the top workplaces in Rhode Island for a fourth year in a row. This recognition is a testament to the continued dedication and hard work of our entire team to create a positive, supportive environment where everyone can thrive."

This recognition is solely based on feedback gathered from employees through a confidential survey conducted by Energage LLC, a leading company in employee engagement technology. The survey assesses various aspects of the employee experience, including feeling respected and supported, opportunities for growth, and a sense of empowerment, among other key themes.

"Earning a Top Workplaces award is a badge of honor for companies, especially because it comes authentically from their employees," said Eric Rubino, Energage CEO. "That's something to be proud of. In today's market, leaders must ensure they're allowing employees to have a voice and be heard. That's paramount. Top Workplaces do this, and it pays dividends."
