

Seller Assistant Launches Updated Price List Analyzer, Transforming Bulk Product Research for Amazon Sellers

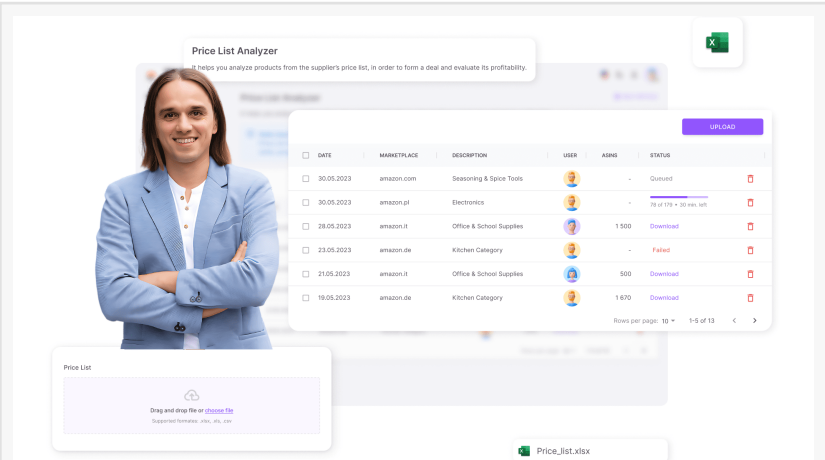

Seller Assistant released Price List Analyzer, a tool that automates supplier price list processing and helps Amazon sellers identify high-margin deals.

SAN DIEGO, CA, UNITED STATES, October 15, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In October 2024, Seller Assistant introduced Updated Price List Analyzer, a powerful tool aimed at simplifying bulk price list processing for Amazon sellers. Designed for wholesale, online arbitrage, and dropshipping sellers, this tool automates supplier price list analysis and identifies high-margin, profitable deals faster than ever.

The tool helps Amazon sellers quickly evaluate thousands of products, matching supplier UPC/EAN codes to Amazon ASINs, and providing essential profitability metrics such as estimated monthly sales, ROI, and profit margins for FBA and FBM products. It automates time-consuming tasks, such as converting UPCs to ASINs, calculating costs, and flagging potential issues like oversized or restricted products.

Key Features:

UPC/EAN to ASIN conversion: Efficiently match supplier products to their Amazon listings.

Price List Analyzer

Helps you analyze products from the supplier's price list, in order to form a deal and evaluate its profitability.
