Stone & Superstone Collections are a fresh take on design that combines innovative technologies, with superior quality – that will redefine your expectations. Both materials are also UV-resistant to fading and lighter than traditional stone tops. Plus, they come in a wide variety of modern, contemporary and traditional designs with prices you can’t beat!”

Kevin detailed their Sintered Stone tabletops are made of 100% mineral composition material that doesn’t use any chemical binders, so it’s recyclable, and better for the environment. Inherently low-maintenance and easy to clean, Sintered Stone is as durable as quartz, granite or marble, with a non-porous surface featuring beautiful rich textures and veining that is found in natural stone. Sintered Stone is also resistant to scratches, stains, water, and will not lose integrity under heat or cold. With universal and versatile appeal they are perfect for casual dining, formal dining, and for elevating chic office spaces.
