New Partnership Between Pole Star Global and RightShip

Through this partnership, both organisations aim to enrich their respective platforms and deliver greater value to their shared customer base. Key objectives include the integration of APIs to optimise the maritime industry's risk and environmental performance.

The first phase of this partnership will see RightShip integrating Pole Star Global's PurpleTRAC API into its platform, allowing RightShip users to benefit from PurpleTRAC's extensive vessel sanctions screening and movement data. This integration will streamline vessel vetting processes, enabling users to conduct technical vetting and sanctions screening in one seamless step, directly from RightShip's platform.

In future phases, Pole Star will integrate RightShip's API into PurpleTRAC, providing users with access to RightShip's industry-leading risk scoring and emissions data. This will further enhance customers' ability to manage compliance and sustainability efforts, making critical insights available within a single platform.

"We are thrilled to partner with RightShip, a recognised leader in maritime risk and environmental assessment," said Bob Skea, CEO of Pole Star Global. "This collaboration will significantly streamline our customers' workflows and ensure that they have access to the most accurate, up-to-date data when making crucial operational decisions. RightShip's CEO Steen Lund added, "Partnering with Pole Star Global is part of our ongoing effort to integrate RightShip's data solutions with leading maritime platforms.
