

Marine Corps Veteran and International Guitarist Rene Benton Announces New Live Album

Rene Benton, will release his third album on November 30, 2024. The album will be available in digital, immersive audio, video, and physical formats.

OMAHA, NE, UNITED STATES, October 16, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Marine Corps veteran and internationally acclaimed guitarist Rene Benton is gearing up for release of his third album , “2 Live in O-Ma-Haw; Lyvv in Omaha,” on November 30, 2024. The album is a unique blend of music and storytelling, offering listeners a journey through Omaha’s evolving cultural landscape.

Omaha is a city that’s often overlooked. I wanted to bring everything full circle through music—to explore the changes, the history, and the stories of the people that make it what it is today!”

Rene Benton

With an extensive touring schedule spanning 42 states and over 70 countries to date, He has been an in-demand guitarist, both for his solo career and as a touring musician with other notable artists. Now, He returns to where it all began; Omaha, alongside longtime friends Troy Johnson (bass), Todd Roberson (drums), and Algerian keyboardist

Nidhal Keddah coming together to bring a unique aural experience for the listener.

Production credits for the album include Tim Zick (Mannheim Steamroller, Dee Dee Bridgewater), Aaron Sprinkle (Demon Hunter, Kutless), Nino Laurenne (Sonata Arctica, Spinefarm Records), and Justin Passamonte. With mastering by Matthew Gray (Hillsong) and, Atmos Mastering by Starsound Studios.

“2 Live in O-Ma-Haw; Lyvv in Omaha” takes a slightly different approach, serving as a “Documusical Xperience” that combines music, storytelling, and local history. The album aims to capture the city’s ever evolving identity; told through the perspectives of its people and set against the backdrop of Mr. Benton’s music.

“Omaha is a city that’s often overlooked,” He says. “I wanted to bring everything full circle through music—to explore the changes, the history, and the stories of the people that make it what it is today!”
