Comprehensive Regenerative Care:

In addition to hyperbaric oxygen therapy, OxygenWell offers:

- Microneedling with Exosomes: Boosts cellular regeneration and skin rejuvenation
- Red & Infrared Light Therapy Bed: Supports collagen production and skin health and reduces pain and inflammation for deep cellular repair
- IV Drips: Including NAD+ and high-dose Vitamin C
- Bioidentical Hormone Replacement Therapy (BHRT): Through Evolved Menopause, focusing on hormone balance and beauty from within

Evolved Menopause: A Holistic Approach

OxygenWell's sister company, Evolved Menopause, provides customized bioidentical hormone therapy, helping women navigate perimenopause and menopause with a focus on restoring vitality and well-being through an integrative medicine lens.

Featured on Keeping Up with the Kardashians

OxygenWell gained significant attention after Kim Kardashian visited the center for a hyperbaric session, featured on Keeping Up with the Kardashians. This spotlight highlights OxygenWell's commitment to cutting-edge wellness treatments.

New Calabasas Location

Expanding to Calabasas allows OxygenWell to serve a larger community with hyperbaric oxygen therapy, known for its role in healing, recovery, and anti-aging. The center also offers regenerative aesthetic treatments that support beauty from the inside out.

OxygenWell is a leader in hyperbaric oxygen therapy and regenerative medicine.
