powered solutions to millions worldwide, elevating wellness education and healthcare innovation to a new level.

As part of this milestone event, California State Treasurer Fiona Ma will headline the HermesLongevity Lounge ribbon-cutting ceremony on October 25th, underscoring California’s commitment to fostering technological innovation and holistic health solutions. As a state leader championing forward-thinking health initiatives, Treasurer Ma will offer a congratulatory speech marking AI Wellness’ significant contribution to advancing wellness education and AI-driven healthcare.

“As we launch this groundbreaking platform, we’re not just introducing technology, we’re creating a movement,” said Abby Aboitiz, Founder and Visionary of AI Wellness. “Our vision is to democratize wellness by providing everyone - regardless of where they are - access to precision health education and personalized tools. This is more than innovation; it’s about reshaping the future of health for generations to come.”

The launch will be broadcast to over 151 million homes across North America and 12 additional countries, positioning AI Wellness at the forefront of the global healthcare innovation movement. This TED Talk-style presentation will provide viewers with an immersive look at how AI technology and personalized wellness solutions are reshaping the future of healthcare.
