

Commercis Technology Announces Strategic Partnership with Hornetsecurity GmbH to Enhance Cyber Protection Services

Commercis Plc is delighted to announce a strategic partnership with Hornetsecurity in the UK, a cloud-based security, compliance, backup and security provider.

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, October 18, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ --

Commercis Plc, a leading provider of connectivity, cybersecurity, and innovative IT solutions, is delighted to announce a strategic partnership between Commercis Technology and Hornetsecurity in the United Kingdom, a premier provider of cloud-based security, compliance, backup and security awareness solutions specifically aimed at Microsoft 365 users. This collaboration aims to strengthen cybersecurity measures, providing robust defences against email-based threats.

By partnering with Hornetsecurity, Commercis will integrate advanced protection solutions into its service offerings, including multi-level filtering, AI-based threat detection, and robust backup solutions, empowering customers to safeguard their sensitive data and maintain business continuity.

Email remains one of the most vulnerable entry points for cyberattacks in today's digital landscape, with approximately thirty-three thousand new email-based threats a day*. According to Deloitte, 91% of cyber-attacks start with an email. Therefore, the automated security awareness training service embedded in the fabric of the Hornetsecurity platform will help organisations and their workforce be a step ahead of cyber attackers, able to identify and act on them more effectively.

"We are excited to partner with Hornetsecurity to enhance further our cybersecurity capabilities," said Vipul Narula, CEO at Commercis Technology. "The capability helps us take our clients through the Microsoft 365 cloud journey faster whilst make it more secure, scalable and reliable. This will also enable our customers manage their complex SharePoint estate whilst giving them visibility, options and control as they take the AI journey with MS Copilot and other AI tools. Together, we will equip businesses with the tools they need to navigate an increasingly complex cyber environment."

Hornetsecurity is known for its comprehensive suite of digital email security solutions, including spam filtering, phishing protection, and data encryption. By leveraging these tools, Commercis Technology aims to deliver a higher level of security against new emerging threats.

"We are thrilled to welcome Commercis Technology as valued Partners, to expand our reach and positioning in this important region. Our advanced protection solutions are designed to combat the evolving threats in the digital landscape, and this partnership will help accelerate the delivery of our AI-powered solutions and add even more value to our customers. Together, we will empower businesses to protect their critical information and communication and maintain trust in their digital operations," said Irvin Shillingford, Regional Sales Manager for Northern Europe at Hornetsecurity. "We look forward to the opportunities ahead and continuing our journey together to raise awareness and promote best practices in information security."

Vipul Narula adds, "This partnership marks a significant milestone in our journey to enhance our offering, and it underscores our commitment to providing advanced technologies with the highest level of security and compliance for our customers and partners."
