customer data. Achieving this compliance underscores CloudLeap's commitment to safeguarding sensitive information and ensuring operational excellence.

"We are excited to have achieved SOC 2 Type II compliance, which showcases our ongoing efforts to provide secure and reliable solutions for our customers," said Bhavana Musuluri, Co-Founder. "As a trusted partner in shipping automation, we prioritize the protection of our customers' data while helping them optimize their shipping processes."

The SOC 2 Type II audit was conducted with the support of Securify AI, CloudLeap's security partner, and Johanson Group LLP, the auditing firm that validated CloudLeap's practices and controls. This accomplishment is a testament to the hard work and dedication of CloudLeap's internal teams.

"We extend our deepest thanks to Securify AI and Johanson Group LLP for their invaluable support in helping us reach this important milestone," added Pritesh Shah, Co-Founder. "Our team worked diligently to meet the rigorous standards required for SOC 2 Type II compliance."

As part of its commitment to data security and customer success, CloudLeap will continue to leverage this compliance to further enhance its secure shipping solutions. The company remains focused on integrating, automating, and optimizing shipping processes for businesses, ensuring they have the most secure and efficient systems in place.
