Every entry means $1 goes to pet rescues.

Prizes that the whole family including the fur-babies will love.

By entering the Wonderween contest, everyone will have the chance to win prizes, in honor of Wondercide's 15th anniversary this year. Winners will be announced the first week of November after social media voting.

Three grand prize winners win a $150 Amazon gift card and Wondercide's top pest control for interiors: Wondercide's 32 oz Indoor Pest Control in the winner's choice of four plant-powered scents, the new Wondercide Flying Insect Trap starter kit powered by innovative Blu-V™ light, and Wondercide's Ant & Roach aerosol spray to keep the ghoulish bugs away this fall and winter.

Wondercide's Wonderween lets us enjoy the best of this time of year with our furry friends while we explore our creative and imaginative sides.

Fifteen finalists will win the Wondercide sling bag and two Wondercide peppermint bug sprays for pets and people. Wondercide's Flea and Tick Spray for cats and dogs repels and kills fleas, ticks, and mosquitoes while Insect Repellent for the family repels ticks and mosquitoes. Both sprays are lab-proven to exceed the effectiveness standards of conventional pest control without the conventional ingredients, using plant power. Bugs don't take the season off in the fall, so everyone will want protection while out on haunted hay rides or taking the pup for a long, scenic hike.

The peppermint scent is one of Wondercide's favorites as peppermint season is right around the corner! It allows people to arm their family and pets from unwanted insects while basking in a pleasant peppermint aroma made from natural essential oils. These sprays are safe around the whole family when used as directed. So, by winning this prize, the contender will have a cute costume moment and gain the weaponry needed to combat those pesky fall bugs.

Safety tips

It's all fun and games until someone gets hurt. So, contestants should stick to the fun and games.

Pet parents may be extra excited to slip an adorable costume on their furry friend, but the animals may be more reluctant. It's important to remember that a pet's comfort and safety come first so here are Wondercide's top tips for Wonderween safety:

- Anything that impedes their vision, hearing, movement, or comfort should be avoided. If the costume includes face or ear coverings, it should be slipped on for the photo opp and then removed.
- Contestants should be mindful of choking hazards. If the costume comes with small props, they should be aware that a curious animal might see it as a new chew toy. Supervision will help ensure safety.

- Costumes shouldn't be too tight and should have a soft material.
- When out and about trick-or-treating or parading, pet parents should be on alert for the scariest monsters in the neighborhood- bugs. Fall is a prime time for creepy crawlers such as ticks, fleas, and mosquitos to hunt their prey. Due to the damp fall climate, these bugs thrive this time of year, causing outdoor activities to become a little less enjoyable. Wondercide's Insect Repellent for the family and Flea and Tick Spray for pets are great tools to combat bugs as mentioned above.
- In addition, Wondercide's Flea and Tick Collar acts as an added layer of protection against these annoying critters. The collar repels fleas and ticks for pets ages 4 months and older. The user has a choice between all four scents of Wondercide's Flea and Tick sprays.

Wondercide encourages everyone to gear up and celebrate all that October offers. Wonderween is the perfect way to get the family together, be creative, and have fun. Whether contestants aim for a unique take on a classic costume or invent their own look, everyone is in for a pawsome Wonderween.
