Set construction with volunteers at Salpointe Catholic High School

This will not be your everyday high school drama. Salpointe Catholic High School's Drama Department is a state and national award-winning troupe that has received many incredible accolades, including numerous Monte Awards, a Jimmy Award Finalist (New York City!), an All-State Superior Ranking, and the Gold Honor Troupe Award. Last year, Salpointe won Best Musical, Best Music Direction and Best Choreography from the Montes!

This is far from your typical high school scenic design. The Salpointe Drama Department proudly introduces newcomer Lisa Krikawa, a long-time Tucson business owner, renowned jewelry designer, and 3D artist, making her debut as a scenic designer. Over 2,000 hours of dedicated work have brought this magical set to life. Lisa shares, "I wear many hats, and I love them all. Every day, I wake up excited to create for my Krikawa clients. Now, I have the incredible opportunity to transport audiences to new worlds, working alongside Salpointe's visionary theatre director, Ericka Quintero."

Krikawa graduated from the University of Arizona in '97 with a degree in Fine Arts and launched her jewelry business from her garage. She now has a thriving online business at krikawa.com,

The [talent] was more than we have ever seen in a high school musical. The sets were meticulously designed and executed, making it easy to immerse oneself in the world they created.”

with headquarters in downtown Tucson, on Congress Street. Four years ago, she started volunteering for Salpointe when her daughter joined the drama department. Krikawa fell in love with building sets and working with high school students and began teaching 3D art at Salpointe two years later. When the opportunity for a scenic designer opened, she jumped to be a part of the magic that Salpointe creates for passionate students, parents, and alumni.

A long-time supporter of Salpointe’s theatrical performances states about last year’s musical, “Into The Woods”: “From the moment the curtains went up, it was clear that this was not the production of a typical high school theater troupe but that of a college or professional-level theater. The sheer depth of talented students who could both sing and act was more than we have ever seen in a high school musical. The sets were meticulously designed and executed, making it easy to immerse oneself in the world they created. This production was a shining example of the power of high school theater to entertain, enlighten, and inspire. We would urge the community never to miss a chance to see a Salpointe Drama production!” -Michael Huether, M.D.
