

Veterans For America First Endorses United States Senator Ted Cruz for Reelection announced CPT Robert M Cornicelli

VFAF Veterans for America first President Robert M Cornicelli has announced the endorsement of Ted Cruz for reelection to the United States Senate

SAN ANTONIO , TX, UNITED STATES,
October 18, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ --
From the VFAF Website:

Veterans for America First proudly and enthusiastically endorse Senator Ted Cruz for his unwavering commitment to conservative values and his steadfast support of the issues most important to our nation's veterans.

Throughout his career, Senator Cruz has consistently fought to uphold the principles of small, limited government, personal freedom, and constitutional integrity. His dedication to securing our borders, safeguarding our Second Amendment rights, and defending our religious liberty aligns with the core beliefs of veterans and law enforcement officers who have sworn to protect and serve this great country.

In addition to his strong conservative stance, Senator Cruz has shown a deep understanding of the unique challenges facing veterans and has drafted and/or supported legislation aimed at improving healthcare, expanding benefits, and ensuring our military is properly equipped. His tireless advocacy for a strong national defense demonstrates his commitment to protecting America at home and abroad. Veterans for America First stands with Senator Ted Cruz, a true patriot who continues to fight for the values that matter most to those who have served.
