"We're thrilled to invite everyone to Bloom's Giving," said Dr. Releford. "Bloom Ranch has always been about more than farming—it's about creating a space where the community can come together and make memories. This festival is our way of giving back to a place that means so much to us, and we can't wait to celebrate with all of you."

Bloom Ranch, established in 1891 by the McDougall family, began as a modest sheep ranch in Acton, California. Over time, it transformed into a thriving agricultural hub famous for its peaches and stone fruits. When the Bloom family took ownership in the mid-20th century, they preserved the ranch's deep-rooted traditions of farming excellence. Now, under the leadership of Dr. Bill Releford, Bloom Ranch continues to flourish, blending its rich historical legacy with a renewed vision for sustainable farming and community involvement.
