Controls and Economic Sanctions, "By bridging gaps across international law, cybersecurity, and ethical governance, and through leadership and collaborations with organizations like Microsoft and Check Point Software Technologies, Adriana demonstrates the collaborative efforts required to assist in addressing today's complex global challenges."

As part of National Cybersecurity Awareness Month (NCSAM), a collaborative effort between the government and industry, Sanford will once again join Microsoft's Corporate Vice President, Aanchal Gupta, for a fireside chat during the Microsoft Employee Giving and Corporate Giving Program, with proceeds donated to the Asia Society

Claremont Graduate University and as one of 16 ambassadors for Inspire2Live, a global health movement advocating for cancer patients, particularly from low- and middle-income countries, ensuring their representation in healthcare discussions and decisions. The organization's "Bottom-Up-Cancer-Support" (BUCS) vision focuses on prevention, early detection, quality of life maintenance, and pain management to enhance cancer care worldwide. Expert patient advocates collaborate with researchers, clinicians, and policymakers to facilitate this mission.

The Inspire2Live Annual Congress—"Overcoming Silent Despair" will take place on October 28-29, 2024, from 8:30 am to 5:00 pm at The Royal Netherlands Academy of Arts and Sciences in Amsterdam. Most cancer-related deaths occur in low- and middle-income countries, where the silent despair is often more profound and intense.

Among 160 nominees from across the globe, Sanford was recently ranked in the Top 20 for the 2024 Cybersecurity Women of the World, an honor recognizing the world's top women in cybersecurity. She is the recipient of the Cybersecurity and Privacy Woman Law Professional—2019 CSWY Award and has served remotely as Of Counsel for Puga Ortiz Abogados in Chile since 2020.
