his dream to play college baseball throughout his high school career, but a catastrophic injury put that dream at risk. Cash suffered a devastating kidney injury that took him out of the eyes of recruiters and put his long-term health at risk.

However, Cash didn't allow that injury to dictate his future. The help of family, friends, and medical professionals got him back on his feet in time for him to impress over 20 college recruiters. The scholarship essay he submitted to Physician Life Care Planning goes into detail about the steps he took to make his dreams come true.

Cash's compelling story drove the Physician Life Care Planning scholarship committee to award him its 2024 Physician Life Care Planning Scholarship. This scholarship promises to support Cash as he pursues a degree at Grinnell College.

Cash is candid when discussing the steps he had to take to restore his health after his injury. After losing 30 pounds, he had to diligently train to return to fighting form while also taking additional measures to protect himself from getting hurt again.

However, Cash didn't restrict himself to physical training. He reports coaching baseball at summer camps and offering his support to the local Little League Team. That community commitment, paired with Cash's desire to restore his previous quality of life, speaks volumes about his character.

Physician Life Care Planning consistently strives to help people recovering from catastrophic injuries take back control of their lives. The team is proud to support Stuart Cash throughout this next stage of his life.
