

Woligo Pharmacy Solutions Partners with Oklahoma Hospital Association to Extend Prescription Savings Program

OKLAHOMA CITY, OK, UNITED STATES, October 22, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Woligo Pharmacy Solutions, an innovative prescription drug savings program, has partnered with the Oklahoma Hospital Association to give member organizations access to dynamic drug pricing tiers, ensuring they pay the lowest price available for prescription drugs.

Through this collaboration, more than 135 hospitals and health systems throughout Oklahoma will have the opportunity to participate in this program, save money, and in some cases, extend these savings to eligible employers in their local community.

"The escalating cost of prescription drugs has become a widespread concern, straining both employer budgets and household finances across the country," said Brian Mauck, Director of Revenue and Product Development at Woligo. "We hear the frustration. We understand the discontent. And now, Woligo Pharmacy Solutions is helping to do something about it."

We believe this program is a game-changer for our members"

Rich Rasmussen

"We believe this program is a game-changer for our members," said Rich Rasmussen, President & CEO of the Oklahoma Hospital Association. "It's not just about saving money; it's about empowering Oklahoma hospitals to make the most of their limited resources while discovering innovative ways to better serve their employers."

The partnership between Woligo Pharmacy Solutions and the Oklahoma Hospital Association reflects a shared commitment to helping to make healthcare more affordable and accessible. Because the program provides full transparency in pricing, no expected costs, and the lowest drug prices available, it puts hospitals and eligible employers in control of their prescription plan costs.
