Nationwide Tattoo Apprenticeship Program is thrilled to announce its expansion to South Carolina. Teaming up with Thaddeus Curry’s Toye Shop Ink in Columbia and Jose Gaddi’s soon-to-be-launched studio in Greenville, Ink Different Tattoo's tattoo apprenticeship program is now able to help aspiring Tattoo Artists become professional Tattoo Artists and make a living from their art in South Carolina.

With thirteen years of successfully blending the intentions of traditional tattoo apprenticeships with the structure, clarity, and safety of a trade school, Ink Different Tattoos provides aspiring Tattoo Artists with the training, guidance, and guarantees people need to become professional Tattoo Artists. Expanding to the state of South Carolina marks an exciting new chapter in Ink Different’s mission to ensure excellence and equal opportunity in the tattoo industry, worldwide.

Teaming Up With Toye Shop Ink

Aspiring Tattoo Artists across South Carolina who are serious about becoming a professional Tattoo Artist can now take advantage of Ink Different's Tattoo Apprenticeship Program, offered in collaboration with Toye Shop Ink, serving the greater Columbia metropolitan area.

“Thad’s talent, humility, and passion for the joy of tattooing is everything,” shares Ink Different’s Paul-Anthony Surdi. “We all share the same commitment to community, creativity, and growth, which makes this a perfect fit.”

Leveling Up The Collaboration in Greenville - Tattoo Artist, José Gaddi

Tattoo Artist and Tattoo Mentor, Jose Gaddi, blends his formal art education with a deep love and understanding of tattooing in Ink Different's Tattoo Apprenticeship Program. Starting his journey in art school, Jose quickly realized that his true calling was in creating living, breathing artwork on skin. Guided by his mentors and fueled by a desire to connect with people through his craft, Jose made the leap from canvas to tattoo machine, embracing the challenges and rewards of the tattoo industry.

"Jose's commitment to building a supportive, family-business-like atmosphere to training aspiring Tattoo Artists is inspiring to watch," shares Paul-Anthony. "He combines humility and perseverance with a dedication to continuous learning, which not only makes his tattoos extraordinary but also inspires the next generation of artists."

A Commitment To Quality And Community

Ink Different Tattoos's Tattoo School Apprenticeship Program is a comprehensive tattoo apprenticeship and Tattoo Artist Certification Program, following a modified approach to the traditional tattoo apprenticeship. Ink Different emphasizes respect and safety, along with a focus on long-term success in the tattoo industry for both the tattoo apprentice and the tattoo studio. With fifteen locations and over 1600 five-star reviews by clients who get tattooed at its studios, Ink Different's commitment to quality and community is clear from coast to coast.
