This anthology of seven short love stories combines intense emotions with unexpected criminal twists, offering a gripping exploration of love's power to overcome adversity.

In The Saving Love Collection, Huskey explores the complexities of relationships where love and danger intersect. Each story presents a different scenario—ranging from stalking and jealousy to kidnapping and mistaken identity—showcasing how love can be both a beacon of hope and a source of resilience. Through these compelling narratives, Huskey demonstrates that love, our strongest emotion, can guide couples through their darkest moments and, in some cases, even save lives.

Dawn Huskey, a resident of Chester County, Pennsylvania, lives with her husband in Coatesville. High school sweethearts, the couple has been married since May 10, 2003. Reflecting on her journey, Huskey shares that becoming a writer was not part of her original plan. Having spent her school years in learning support classes, she never imagined becoming an author. Today, she is a proud wife, daughter, sister, aunt, niece, and friend, drawing inspiration from the close bonds she shares with her family.
