“This recognition solidifies our mission to create a better and kinder world through education,” said Tim Boylan, CEO and Founder of OP360. “Our commitment goes beyond financial support—we're building sustainable partnerships and engaging our employees in meaningful volunteer work that transforms communities.”

Some of the key achievements of OP360 Cares include:

The company's ongoing support for nine schools across the Philippines and Colombia

The distribution of 703 gift baskets to school staff in Cebu, Philippines since 2021

Its six-year partnership with the Special Needs Education (SNED) Center in the Philippines

The renovation of critical infrastructure, including a typhoon-damaged greenhouse and a deteriorating canteen

The implementation of essential technology solutions for modern education

OP360 Cares' impact is best illustrated by testimonials from its beneficiaries. As shared by a teacher from the SNED Center: "I am exceedingly fortunate to have stakeholders like OfficePartners360 looking out for me and our entire department." Similarly, a vice principal from one of the beneficiary schools expressed profound gratitude for OP360's contributions to their learners' education.

Empowered by its win at the OIA, OP360 Cares looks forward to further demonstrating how successful businesses can create meaningful social impact while maintaining operational excellence. The program's focus on long-term partnerships, active employee engagement, and sustainable development has set a new standard for corporate social responsibility in the outsourcing industry.
