HOUSTON, TX, UNITED STATES, October 25, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- SCDC had the privilege of attending S.H.A.P.E. Community Center's gala, held at the historic Buffalo Soldiers National Museum. The landmark event celebrated 55 years of dedicated service, honoring its profound legacy while embracing the future with the theme, "Our Past, Our Foundation, Our Future, Our Purpose."

For over five decades, S.H.A.P.E. has been a beacon of hope and a force for change, providing a safe and nurturing environment and vital resources for Houston's African American community and beyond. From its pivotal role in Houston's Civil Rights Movement to its broad array of SCDC staff, alongside Advisory Board Member Dr. James Heggie, were treated to an evening of inspiring performances by SE7EN and the KoumanKe'le African Dance and Drum Ensemble. The event featured powerful keynote addresses by Dr. Marcus D. Cosby of Wheeler Avenue Baptist Church and Dr. Abdul Haleem Muhammad, who emphasized the importance of building resilient communities and the shared responsibility to uplift Houston's underserved populations.

The evening also included a heartfelt tribute to the late Congresswoman Sheila Jackson Lee, celebrating her tireless advocacy for justice, equality, and progress in Houston's communities.
