

Freedom Energy Logistics Expands Business Relationship with Brookfield Renewable U.S.

Successfully Navigates Complex Approval Process for Hydro Dams to Participate in Group Net Metering

AUBURN, NH, UNITED STATES, October 24, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ --

Freedom Energy Logistics ("Freedom Energy") is pleased to announce its continued collaboration with Brookfield Renewable U.S., the operating platform wholly owned by Brookfield Renewable Partners (NYSE: BEP; TSX: BEP.UN) ("Brookfield"), resulting in approval for their participation in New Hampshire's Group Net Metering (GNM) program. Freedom Energy effectively supported Brookfield through the approval process for its Sawmill and Shelbourne hydro dams, located behind the interconnection at the White Mountain Paper Mill in Berlin, NH. These 5 MW hydroelectric facilities will not only continue to power the paper mill but can now also contribute their excess generation to the GNM program following the passage of SB 40.

We look forward to continuing our collaboration with Freedom Energy to expand group net metering at our facility, providing opportunities for municipal clients, including the State of NH to benefit.”

Steve Zuretti, Brookfield Renewable U.S.

The hydro dams will now work with the State of New Hampshire and the University System as group members, signifying a significant advancement in Freedom Energy's partnership with Brookfield. This achievement highlights the company's commitment to maximizing clients' generation assets and demonstrates its skill in navigating complex regulations.

"We are delighted to have been instrumental in securing approval for the Sawmill and Shelbourne hydro dams under the Group Net Metering program," stated Bart Fromuth, CEO of Freedom Energy Logistics. "I extend my gratitude to our partners at Brookfield, as well as the New Hampshire Department of Energy, Eversource, and Senator Avard for their support throughout this complex and lengthy process."
