

MATT COREY LAUNCHES STATEWIDE TV CAMPAIGN IN U.S. SENATE RACE

Republican U.S. Senate candidate claims Chris Murphy has failed to deliver on promises and addresses concerns over affordability crisis

MANCHESTER, CT, UNITED STATES, October 25, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Republican U.S. Senate candidate Matt Corey has announced the launch of his statewide TV ad campaign today, set to run through Election Day. The ads focus on claims that Chris Murphy has not delivered on his initial campaign promises after 18 years in Washington, highlighting Murphy's support for lifting sanctions on Iran, and raising concerns about his lack of response to Connecticut's affordability crisis.

18 years ago, Chris Murphy campaigned on bringing accountability and change to Washington. But instead of keeping his word, he's become part of the problem”

News headlines highlighting Chris Murphy's failings as a Senator

“18 years ago, Chris Murphy campaigned on bringing accountability and change to Washington. But instead of keeping his word, he's become part of the problem," Corey said. "Trust in government has collapsed, and under his watch, the dysfunction in D.C. has only worsened."

The first ad, titled "Broken Promises," contrasts Murphy's early campaign rhetoric with current challenges in Washington. Corey says the ad encourages voters to consider whether it is time for a change in leadership.

The second ad, "Affordability," emphasizes rising costs for Corey's ads will air across cable networks and Connecticut's ABC, CBS, Fox, and NBC affiliates as well as My 9 TV. In addition, the campaign is running statewide radio ads that address these same themes on more than 20 stations.
