Community Center has stood as a beacon of hope and resilience, offering a safe and supportive space for the African American community and beyond. From its instrumental role in Houston's Civil Rights Movement to its wide range of programs—including youth enrichment, elder care, cultural festivals, disaster relief, and advocacy—S.H.A.P.E. has profoundly impacted thousands of lives.

S.H.A.R.E. Community Development Corp (SCDC) is proud to support the ongoing mission of S.H.A.P.E. by funding initiatives that expand its reach across the city. Every week, S.H.A.P.E. engages people of all ages through programs like elder exercise classes, job-skills training workshops, groceries for those with food insecurity, and after-school youth programs focused on STEM education. S.H.A.P.E. continues to serve as the thread that binds the community together, offering a welcoming, non-partisan, and non-religious space for all.

In recognition of its incredible service, SCDC recently attended the S.H.A.P.E. Gala at the Buffalo Soldiers National Museum. The evening honored S.H.A.P.E.'s lasting achievements and cast a vision for the future as the organization continues to expand its impact.
