

CoachCare acquires Dedic Health

Digital health companies join forces to expand Remote Patient Monitoring and Chronic Care Management

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, October 29, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- CoachCare, a leading remote patient monitoring (RPM) and virtual health company, has acquired California-based RPM company Dedic Health, for an undisclosed amount. The acquisition represents CoachCare's fifth acquisition to date. Founded in 2021, Dedic's expertise in primary care and cardiology further enhances CoachCare's existing offerings.

"Healthcare providers increasingly look for patient monitoring and chronic care management solutions that centralize care options for many types of patients. CoachCare continues to add capabilities and expertise to benefit more patients being treated for a number of varied conditions. Dedic Health has built an impressive platform, is beloved by its clients and is a tremendous addition to CoachCare," said Andrew Zengilowski, Chief Executive Officer of CoachCare. "Their impressive team, led by Dr. Menachem Wakslak, and client roster accelerates CoachCare's expansion into these attractive specialties. This transaction supports CoachCare's objective to grow revenue rapidly both organically and via strategic transactions with exceptional businesses. We are pleased to continue working with Dr. Wakslak as Senior Advisor to the Chief Executive Officer and are excited by what his unique combination of clinical and business expertise will bring to CoachCare and our clients."

"I am thrilled that Dedic is joining forces with CoachCare, an industry leader in remote patient monitoring." Said Dr. Menachem Wakslak, Founder of Dedic. "In CoachCare, we have found an organization that shares our vision and values, and our commitment to placing customers and patients at the center of everything we do. It is my hope that this strategic merger will combine Dedic's passion and innovation with CoachCare's extensive experience and proven track record. As a part of CoachCare we are poised to deliver more comprehensive and effective remote monitoring solutions, ultimately leading to improved patient experiences, outcomes and a higher standard of care."
