Originally from India and now a proud resident of Katy, Texas for over a decade, Promiti leverages her international business background and local real estate knowledge to deliver exceptional value to her clients. Her experience as the owner of a high-end retail business, combined with her work in finance and international bullion trading, gives her real estate clients an extra layer of expertise they can count on.

"I'm thrilled to bring my passion for real estate and dedication to client success to Corcoran Genesis," said Promiti Roy. "For me, real estate is about more than transactions; it's about building relationships. I aim to be a trusted advisor for my clients, ensuring they feel confident and cared for at every step of their journey."

A Supportive Partnership with Nicole and Doug Freer

Promiti describes her experience with Nicole and Doug Freer at Corcoran Genesis as truly supportive. "Nicole and Doug's commitment to their agents is inspiring," she shared. "Their abundance mindset and willingness to share their expertise reflect their values of support and growth. Despite their busy schedules, they are always accessible and genuinely invested in each agent's success. I am grateful to be part of a brokerage where everyone is committed to lifting each other up."

In addition to her work at Corcoran Genesis, Promiti and her husband of 20 years enjoy a vibrant family life with their two sons and beloved Goldendoodle. Outside of real estate, she indulges in travel, reading, music, and discovering new dining spots in Houston. Her strong faith, which she credits as her guiding force, shapes both her personal and professional journeys.
