

C.A. Short Company Announces the 2024 All-In Award Winners

SHELBY, NC, UNITED STATES, October 28, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- C.A. Short Company proudly presents the winners of the 2024 All-In Awards, recognizing outstanding individuals and organizations dedicated to fostering cultures of recognition and engagement. The awards ceremony, held in the picturesque city of Savannah, Georgia, showcased the remarkable achievements and innovative approaches of the honorees.

The All-In Awards, now in their third year, continue to highlight the transformative power of recognition programs in driving organizational success. From healthcare to transportation, these awards celebrate excellence in program design, engagement, safety, and overall impact.

"The essence of our All-In Awards lies in acknowledging those who go above and beyond to cultivate environments where appreciation and acknowledgment thrive," remarked Christopher Cheney, COO at C.A. Short Company. "These programs are not just initiatives; they are catalysts for positive change and sustainable growth within organizations."

The winners of the 2024 All-In Awards are as follows:

- Best Overall Program: Adams County Government
- Best Program Design: Virtua Health
- Top Performing Service Award Program: Old Dominion Freight Line, Inc.
