

Derrick Solano Reveals Personal Adoption Records to Prove His Memoir I Won't Break is True

Author Derrick Solano releases personal adoption records to verify his life story detailed in his memoir, I Won't Break.

LAS VEGAS, NM, UNITED STATES, October 25, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Derrick Solano, author of the powerful memoir I Won't Break, is going public with his adoption records and birth certificate to confirm the life story he shares in his book. These original documents, now accessible on his website at <https://www.derricksolano.com/truth>, include his birth certificate, the paper his biological mother signed relinquishing him, and a full account of his adoption records. With this release, Solano aims to provide the true crime community and readers of his memoir with solid proof of his experiences growing up as a lost child within the foster care system.

These records aren't just proof—they're for anyone who's fought to survive. My truth is raw, real, and unfiltered, showing what resilience truly looks like.”

Solano's memoir, I Won't Break, chronicles a life forged in the fires of abandonment, foster homes, and systemic cruelty, set against the backdrop of a struggle to reclaim his identity. By sharing the adoption records that chart his path, Solano hopes to dissolve any doubts about his story's authenticity and encourage readers to witness his journey through these unaltered documents.

"These records aren't just for doubters—they're for everyone who's ever wondered what true resilience looks like," says Solano. "I shared my entire life in I Won't Break, and now I'm sharing the paperwork that marks each twist in that journey. This is for anyone who believes in survival and in facing every truth, no matter how painful."

Now available on Amazon at <https://a.co/d/cp7kzKE>, I Won't Break invites readers into the dark and often brutal reality of Solano's life, from early abandonment to family betrayal and life as a foster child. Solano's new page on <https://www.derricksolano.com/truth> goes one step further by displaying the documentation behind his experiences, giving his memoir an unprecedented level of transparency.

For members of the true crime community, these records offer an unfiltered look at the complexities of abandonment, systemic failures, and the lasting impact of family decisions. The combination of I Won't Break and Solano's newly released records makes for an unmissable story of survival, resilience, and reclamation.
