

The Law Offices of Anidjar & Levine Offer Legal Assistance to Hurricane Victims with Denied Insurance Claims

Anidjar & Levine offer legal help to Florida property owners facing denied claims after Hurricanes Milton and Helene.

FORT LAUDERDALE, FL, UNITED STATES, October 28, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In the aftermath of Hurricanes Milton and Helene, Florida homeowners and businesses are facing a troubling rise in denied property insurance claims. The Law Offices of Anidjar & Levine are stepping in to provide legal assistance to those affected by these denials, ensuring that policyholders receive the compensation to which they are entitled.

According to a recent report by Weiss Ratings, property insurers have increasingly denied legitimate claims following major natural disasters, such as Hurricanes and floods. The report found that nearly half of all damage claims made in Florida in 2023 with top insurers, including Castle Key Indemnity and State Farm, were denied. This trend has left many homeowners and business owners struggling to recover from the devastation without the financial assistance they expected.

Policyholders have a right to expect their insurers to honor their commitments, especially in the wake of devastating storms like Hurricanes Milton and Helene”
