

Discover Fenton Village Block Party Showcases Local Businesses and Talent in Silver Spring

Fenton Village Executive Director Daniel Moijueh Initiates Fall Celebration of Community Spirit, Small Business, and Local Talent

SILVER SPRING, MD, UNITED STATES, October 28, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Fenton Village's annual "Discover Fenton Village" Block Party brought the heart of Silver Spring to life on October 20, filling the streets with music, art, and a strong sense of community. This fall-themed celebration spotlighted the diverse small businesses and local entertainers that make Fenton Village a unique destination.

Organized by Fenton Village, Inc., a nonprofit dedicated to preserving and promoting the neighborhood, the event aimed to increase awareness of the 240+ independent businesses located between Georgia Avenue and Fenton Street. Home to a variety of restaurants, cafes, yoga studios, beauty salons, music stores, and art spaces, Fenton Village represents the vibrant cultural diversity and entrepreneurial spirit that define Silver Spring.

"Supporting the businesses in Fenton Village is not just about shopping locally—it's about investing in the community," said Daniel Moijueh,

Discover Fenton Village Block Party

Executive Director of Fenton Village, Inc. “These businesses provide jobs, foster creativity, and contribute to the economic vitality of Silver Spring. Events like this block party highlight the incredible talent and diversity within our neighborhood while bringing people together in celebration.”

The weekend event featured a showcase of local artwork at CREATE Arts Center, a festive pumpkin patch on Thayer, and a Main Stage performance at Citizens and Culture’s parking lot. Families enjoyed activities like pumpkin carving, sack races, and face painting, while sports fans gathered for a lively Sunday Football Bar Crawl, which included stops at Quarry House Tavern, Third Hill Brewing, and Fire Station 1.

Block Party Performers & Attendees

In addition to celebrating local businesses, the event promoted civic engagement through a voter registration drive hosted by Omega Psi Phi Fraternity at Quality Time School. Attendees also had the opportunity to join a worship service at Jesus House, while local bands, including Ras Slick and the Dutty Bus Crew, closed the night with soulful reggae performances at Abyssinia Ethiopian Restaurant.

Supporting the businesses in Fenton Village is not just about shopping locally—it’s about investing in the community. They provide jobs, foster creativity, and contribute to economic vitality.”

Daniel Moijueh, Executive Director of Fenton Village, Inc.

Looking ahead, Fenton Village, Inc. plans to use grant funding to further support local businesses and provide resources for growth. The organization has also developed a digital community portal to help local business owners stay connected with events, meetings, and important outreach efforts.
