The Power of Video Marketing for Lawyers

Video marketing has become an essential tool for lawyers to connect with potential clients, build brand awareness, and establish themselves as thought leaders in their practice areas. Video content is more engaging, memorable, and shareable than traditional text-based content, making it an ideal medium for capturing attention and conveying complex legal information in an accessible way.

However, many lawyers struggle to incorporate video marketing into their busy schedules. Creating compelling video content requires time, effort, and expertise – resources that are often in short supply for attorneys juggling demanding caseloads and client meetings.

Introducing AVATAR Platinum: Effortless Video Marketing for Busy Lawyers

Business Solutions Marketing Group's AVATAR Platinum program removes the barriers to effective video marketing for lawyers. This comprehensive program leverages cutting-edge technology and a team of experienced video marketing professionals to deliver high-quality video content with minimal effort from the attorney.

Here's how the AVATAR Platinum program works:

Effortless Content Creation: Business Solutions Marketing Group handles all aspects of content creation, from scripting and storyboarding to filming and editing. Attorneys simply participate in a brief monthly Zoom call, using their cell phone camera, to record their video segments.

Expert Guidance: A dedicated Video Director guides attorneys through the recording process, ensuring optimal lighting, sound quality, and on-screen presence.

Multi-Platform Distribution: Finished videos are strategically distributed across a wide range of social media platforms, including Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, LinkedIn, Google My Business, YouTube, and TikTok.

Content Variety: The program delivers a diverse mix of video content, including educational videos, client testimonials, behind-the-scenes glimpses into the law firm, and engaging short-form videos for platforms like TikTok and YouTube Shorts.

Consistent Posting Schedule: With 8 custom video posts per month, the AVATAR Platinum program ensures a consistent online presence, maximizing visibility and engagement.
