Best Selling Author - Michael Killen

Central to the success of The E-Myth Evolution is Michael Killen’s chapter, “Building a Sustainable Business with Honesty, Integrity, and Humility.” Michael shares his unique perspective on creating a business foundation based on these core values, offering readers both inspiration and practical strategies for long-term success. His insights encourage others to pursue growth through ethical practices, embodying the essence of the E-Myth philosophy.

Meet Michael Killen:

Michael Killen is the visionary founder of Amish Yard, LLC, an award-winning company renowned for its superior outdoor products and exceptional customer service. With over two decades of industry experience, Michael's entrepreneurial journey began with a modest $10,000 loan from his father, which he successfully transformed into a thriving multi-million-dollar enterprise generating over $10 million annually.

Beyond his business achievements, Michael is deeply committed to personal growth and development. As a Certified Human Behavior Consultant specializing in the DISC model, he possesses profound insights into human dynamics, which he applies in both his professional and personal life. Inspired by the Ziglar philosophy, Michael is a staunch advocate of positive thinking and continuous improvement.

Michael's dedication to personal development is evident in his role as a devoted husband to Ashlee and father to Ryder and Jessie. He cherishes every moment spent coaching his children in youth sports and guiding them through life's challenges. His commitment to family and personal fitness underscores the importance he places on nurturing relationships and maintaining a healthy lifestyle.

Michael is also a pillar in his community, finding joy and purpose in helping others, whether it's supporting business growth or aiding individuals in their recovery journeys. His compassionate nature and desire to uplift those around him make him a respected and beloved figure in his community.

In his spare time, Michael enjoys the peace and serenity of his 9-acre ranch. Surrounded by family, he finds solace and inspiration in his rural retreat, balancing his professional endeavors with a fulfilling personal life.

Michael Killen's life is a harmonious blend of entrepreneurial success, personal growth, and community service. His multifaceted approach to life and business, combined with his passion for helping others, has established him as a dynamic leader and mentor. Through his journey, Michael continues to inspire those around him to strive for excellence and embrace the transformative power of personal development.
