

WOMEN'S MARCH & RALLY TO UPLIFT VOICES OF LEADERSHIP, RESILIENCE, AND EQUALITY

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, October 29, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Assemblymember Tina McKinnor and Inglewood City Councilmember Dionne Faulk are proud to host a powerful Women's March & Rally on November 2, 2024, from 10:00 AM to 1:00 PM. The event will celebrate the strength, resilience, and leadership of women in our communities and beyond, while advocating for equality and empowerment.

The march will take place in Inglewood, with participants making their way through the city streets and concluding at Inglewood City Hall. This march will feature speeches from local and statewide elected officials, as well as other dignitaries, all of whom are united by a shared vision for equality, solidarity, and lasting change. The Women's March & Rally will celebrate the strength, resilience, and leadership of women in our communities while advocating for equality and empowerment. In California, women make up nearly half of the workforce but continue to face significant barriers to economic equality, including a persistent gender wage gap and limited access to leadership roles. Addressing these inequities is critical not just for the well-being of women, but for the economic prosperity of the state overall.

TINA MCKINNOR
Assemblymember, District 61

Event Details:

Date: November 2, 2024

Time: 10:00 AM - 1:00 PM

Location: Inglewood, CA (march ending at Inglewood City Hall)

Hosts: Assemblymember Tina McKinnor and Inglewood City Councilmember Dionne Faulk
