"Butterflies", the first single from the EP, won the award for Best Pop Song at the HIMA Awards in July. She recently signed to independent label Instant Records distributed via The Orchard. The label is founded and headed by Richard Gottehrer who produced iconic artists, Blondie,

The Go-Go's, Madonna, Ramones and the Talking Heads. She describes her EP, "I wrote 'It Ends With Me' after I got out of a 5 year relationship and my parents got divorced two weeks later. The two events happening so close to each other forced me to reflect on my life and my choices. This project consists of 6 songs that tell the story of my journey back to myself."

About Baker Grace: Baker Grace is a prolific songwriter and emotionally powerful singer. Hailing from New Jersey, she was discovered in high school after releasing an album she recorded in her basement with her Father. She was also mentored by songwriter, Scott Harris (who penned hits for Camila Cabello, Shawn Mendes, The Chainsmokers, Dua Lipa, Justin Bieber etc.) and signed to Republic Records. After releasing a few singles on Republic she decided to release her debut EP "Girl I Know" independently and garnered over 20 million streams!
