

Olive Branch Mission Hosts Timely Exclusive Documentary Screening: "Americans With No Address"

Join City of Chicago leaders, from politicians to pastors, as we come together to combat homelessness.

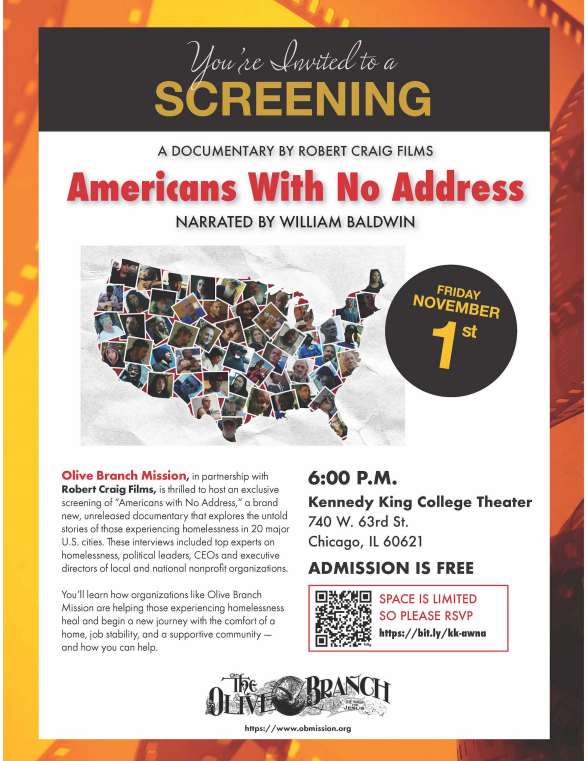

CHICAGO, IL, UNITED STATES, October 29, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On Friday, November 1st, Olive Branch Mission is hosting a second exclusive screening of an unreleased documentary title "Americans With No Address." Narrated by actor William Baldwin, this film exemplifies the increasing homeless crisis sweeping America and captures the untold stories of those experiencing life on the streets.

Olive Branch Mission invites the media to attend along with various local lawmakers and faith leaders to view this eye-opening screening this Friday, November 1st at 6:00pm at Kennedy King College located at 740 W. 63rd Street, Chicago, IL 60621. The purpose of the event is to raise awareness and initiate solution-based conversations about the increasing human cost of homelessness. Watch the trailer here.

Leaders from the Chicago Department of Family and Support Services (DFSS) Homelessness Division are attending, as well as Chicago Aldermen/women and Commissioners who wish to raise awareness regarding this crisis.

Olive Branch Board member Sir Dr. Walt Whitman, director of the Soul Children of Chicago will serve as emcee.

Olive Branch Mission has the unique opportunity to screen the documentary through a partnership with Robert Craig Films. The documentary is a precursor to a feature-length film titled "No Address" to be released on February 25, 2025, starring William Baldwin, Ashanti, Ty
