

Credit One Bank and Big Brothers Big Sisters Once Again Team Up for Number One Fan Initiative

LAS VEGAS, NV, UNITED STATES, October 29, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Credit One Bank, a leader in the U.S. credit card industry and pillar of the Las Vegas community, partnered with Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southern Nevada to surprise five bigs and five littles from the organization with tickets to the Vegas Golden Knights vs. St. Louis Blues hockey game on Friday, October 11th. This was the Bank's second time working with the organization for a Number One Fan event, having given them a night at the ballpark for a Las Vegas Aviators game earlier this year.

The event was a surprise to the youth at Big Brothers Big Sisters, who were ecstatic when they learned where the charter bus would be taking them that evening. On game night, the participants got to watch the action from the Credit One Bank suite, and meet VGK mascot, Chance, and members of the Vegas Vivas dance team.

Credit One Bank launched the Number One Fan initiative in spring of 2023, forming partnerships with six nonprofits in Southern Nevada to offer families and individuals exclusive experiences at local sporting events. The program has collaborated with the Las Vegas Raiders, Vegas Golden Knights, Las Vegas Aviators, and the Credit One Charleston Open to provide unique experiences to its charity partners.

These experiences have included on-field access at a Raiders game at Allegiant Stadium for U.S.VETS Las Vegas, participation in Vegas Golden Knights pre-game parades for childhood cancer survivors and their families from Candlelighters, and a private tennis clinic for the youths of Meeting Street Academy at the Credit One Charleston Open with top-10 women's tennis pro, Emma Navarro.

Credit One Bank's Number One Fan initiative continues to positively impact the community by creating unforgettable experiences for those in need.
