“I am incredibly excited for 'Hidden Branches' to be screened at the Rome International Film Festival,” C23 Productions CEO Cydne Pitcher said. “I am honored to have the opportunity to shed light on this story and the series' mission to spotlight families and secrets that bind them. I hope the Georgia film community will be captivated with this story and be interested in partnering with us to assist in the series as it branches out.”

The self-contained docuseries employs an interview style approach enhanced with reenactments, family photos and videos, and historical files and footage. In the series, family histories collide with family narratives, secrets are exposed, shocking discoveries are made, and emotions run the gamut as newfound family members reckon with one another and the revelations that bring them together. Each story provides a unique outcome and includes the perspectives of both the one who is searching, and those who are found.
