Private Treatment Center Warriors Heart Virginia announces it is now a VA CCN Region 1 in-network provider to heal our heroes.

RICHMOND, VA, UNITED STATES, October 30, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Warriors Heart Virginia is proud to announce that their evidence-based healing program has officially joined the Veterans Affairs Community Care Network (VA CCN) as an in-network provider for Region 1, offering specialized residential treatment exclusively for military, veterans and first responders, struggling with addiction, PTSD and co-occurring issues.

As the #1 private and accredited warrior healing program in the United States, Warriors Heart accepts most major insurance at their two locations, including:

1. Warriors Heart Virginia in Milford (in-between Washington D.C. and Richmond, Virginia) and
2. Warriors Heart Texas location in Bandera (near San Antonio), has been in the VA CCN network since 2017.

Warriors Heart Virginia Executive Director and USAF Veteran Mike Marotta emphasizes, "As a new VA CCN in-network provider, Warriors Heart Virginia is poised to provide essential, veteran-focused services to those who have served our nation, ensuring they receive the comprehensive and compassionate care they deserve across Region 1."

As a fully state-licensed and Joint Commission accredited facility, Warriors Heart is committed to Overall, Warriors Heart's vision is the "Bring 1 Million Warriors Home" in an environment that feels like the opposite of a hospital. And 90% of the staff are part of the warrior community, either as a warrior or have a loved one who is a warrior. Warriors Heart was designed to feel like a "home" with suite-like rooms, a private chef who cooks healthy meals, healing modalities and a ranch setting with open-space.

Warriors Heart has been operational since April 2016 in Texas and served 3200+ clients. The program expanded to Virginia in 2023 as a second location, with an invite from the Governor's office. The program officially received the Gold Seal of Approval® for Behavioral Health Care Accreditation in November 2016, and provides a safe place where warriors can heal in an environment that supports and understands their struggles.

In addition, Warriors Heart is a community care provider with the Veterans Affairs, who continually looks for ways to support local organizations and businesses in Virginia and Texas.
