

Springfree Trampoline Returns to Costco, Expanding Its Footprint in the Retail Market

PLANO, TX, UNITED STATES, November 12, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Costco has officially reintroduced trampolines to its members after a long hiatus, and it's doing so with the world's safest trampoline brand, Springfree Trampoline. Springfree Trampoline is available online and is expected to be featured at select warehouses in time for the holidays.

Launching exclusively at Costco as a part of their Treasure Hunt strategy – emphasizing limited-edition high-value products -- is the Springfree Trampoline Jumbo Round All Black Bundle, which includes a basketball hoop and ladder.

The Jumbo Round Trampoline features Springfree's patented design that eliminates the risks posed by traditional trampolines, including no springs, no hard edges, and a flexible safety net to prevent falls – all backed by a 10-year warranty.

Springfree Trampoline's introduction into Costco underscores the company's dedication to delivering its award-winning product base to a wider audience.

"Costco's reintroduction of trampolines to their SKU lineup marks an exciting milestone, and we're thrilled to collaborate with them to provide an exclusive product that upholds their commitment of value, quality and customer satisfaction for their members," said Amy McIntee, Chief Operating Officer at goba Sports Group, the parent company of Springfree Trampoline.

Springfree Trampoline returns to Costco, expanding its reach in the premium outdoor recreation market. Now available online, Springfree will also debut in select Costco warehouses just in time for the holidays.

The alignment with Costco, known for its rigorous product standards and commitment to member satisfaction, highlights Springfree's position as a leader in the trampoline industry.

"Diversifying our retail channels allows us to meet the growing demand of families for safer, more innovative outdoor play solutions," said McIntee, who also oversees gobaplay – a sister brand of Springfree Trampoline that sells outdoor play products like swing sets and climbing structures.

"By making our products accessible through Costco, more families will have the opportunity to bring home a top-quality trampoline that combines safety, durability, and fun—ensuring countless joyful moments for years to come, with the peace of mind that they've chosen a brand they can trust."
