“It is my wish that every family in Asheville become aware of at-home pet euthanasia so they may provide a peaceful and compassionate end-of-life experience for their beloved pets when their time comes,” says Dr. Karen Whala, a co-founder of CodaPet. “As an in-home euthanasia veterinarian, I repeatedly hear the heartfelt gratitude and the relief a family feels when they have been able to grant their pet this gift.”

Dr. Karen Whala, Dr. Gary Hsia, and Dr. Bethany Hsia are co-founders and veterinarians of CodaPet. They share a passion for increasing both customer access and awareness by empowering a network of veterinarians who provide compassion and professional care to more pets and their families in a familiar environment.

“I decided to offer IHE because I have the training to provide love and support to owners and their pets during this difficult time. I chose to partner with CodaPet because of the flexibility in my schedule, which allows me to take care of my family while still providing a service to owners, pets, and the community,” says Dr. Cara Mitchell. Dr. Mitchell grew up on a farm in Western North Carolina, where her father instilled in her a deep love and respect for all animals. She pursued her passion for veterinary medicine at Ross University, earning her DVM in 2017. After completing an internship at the University of Colorado and a residency at the University of Chicago, Dr. Mitchell became an Assistant Director and Clinical Veterinarian at Cornell University in 2023. Now back in her hometown to care for her family, she's excited to continue her work supporting animals and their families with compassionate in-home care.

Dr. Mitchell services Asheville, Hickory, Hendersonville, Morganton, Shelby, Lenoir, Boone, Marion, Waynesville, Candler, Weaverville, Arden, Granite Falls, Forest City, Brevard, Rutherfordton, Fletcher, Canton, Burnsville, Black Mountain and the surrounding areas.

How In-home Pet Euthanasia Works

Through CodaPet's website, pet parents can easily book in-home pet euthanasia performed by a licensed vet.

Before the appointment, the vet contacts the family to address any questions or concerns they might have.

The vet assists the family by going over the diagnosis and applying a quality-of-life assessment to objectively assess the pet's health and ensure there is no uncertainty about the need for euthanasia.

For those who need support with aftercare, CodaPet can also assist with transportation and cremation services.

The visit takes, on average, one hour. Pet parents have a window of time to be with their pets privately before and after the euthanasia procedure, which lasts about 15 minutes. The vet only starts the euthanasia process when everyone is ready. This helps bring closure to all family members involved in the end-of-life care of a pet.

Benefits of In-home Pet Euthanasia include:

1. Compassion: In-home pet euthanasia allows for a more compassionate approach to end-of-life care. Pets can be surrounded by their loved ones, receive individual attention and care, and pass away peacefully in a familiar environment.
2. Comfort: One major benefit of in-home pet euthanasia is the comfort it provides to both the pet and their owners. The familiar surroundings of home can help reduce anxiety and stress for pets, making the process more peaceful. In addition, being surrounded by loved ones can provide a sense of support and comfort during a very difficult time.

3. Control: In-home pet euthanasia also allows pet owners to have more control over the experience. They can choose the time and place of the euthanasia, as well as who will be present. In addition, in-home euthanasia allows owners to personalize the experience, including choosing the location, music, lighting, and other factors that can make the experience more meaningful.

4. Closure: Being able to say goodbye in a meaningful way can be an essential part of the grieving process. In-home pet euthanasia allows for a more intimate farewell, which can provide closure and help with the healing process.

In-home Pet Euthanasia Costs

The starting price of in-home euthanasia starts at $275 in Asheville. The aftercare and cremation price begins at $105 and varies depending on factors such as the driving distance, the pet's size, and the option for private or communal cremation.
