Super Brush LLC, a U.S.-based manufacturer, is excited to announce its participation in the upcoming 2024 COMPAMED/MEDICA International Trade Fair

SPRINGFIELD, MA, UNITED STATES, October 31, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Super Brush LLC, a U.S.-based manufacturer, is excited to announce its participation in the upcoming 2024 COMPAMED/MEDICA International Trade Fair, taking place from November 11-14 in Düsseldorf, Germany. As one of the largest B2B medical trade fairs worldwide, COMPAMED/MEDICA is expected to attract over 83,000 visitors and host more than 5,300 exhibitors from nearly 70 countries.

At COMPAMED/MEDICA, the Super Brush team will showcase a selection of their over 3,000 durable, lint-free foam swabs, which are trusted across industries like cleanroom, pharmaceutical, medical, diagnostic, dental, veterinary, and additive manufacturing.

With extensive experience in custom swab design, Super Brush can tailor foam swabs to meet specific needs in kits, packaging, and applications. Their swabs are crafted without adhesives, ensuring no fluid contamination, and each mitt is made from lint-free, durable foam.
