"As a small-business owner, I see daily the importance of being involved and active when it comes to laws and regulations," stated Mr. Minor. "Joining NSBA's Leadership Council will enable me to take our collective small-business message to the people that need to hear it most: Congress."

Quincy P. Minor, CEO of KAM Technologies, boasts over 25 years of leadership experience in the IT sector, focusing on service operations, profit-loss management, and sales. An accomplished technology leader, Mr. Minor excels in defining, implementing, and executing technical strategies that enhance organizational performance. He graduated from Alabama State University and earned his Executive MBA from Auburn University.

Mr. Minor joined the NSBA Leadership Council as part of his efforts to tackle the many critical issues facing small business, including tax reform, regulatory restraint, health care costs and
