

Fanged Wyvern 'Zinogre' to Make Appearance at 'MONSTER HUNTER THE FIELD in Nijigen no Mori'

The thunderous wyvern will appear at the anime park from November 2nd, celebrating 20 years of the Monster Hunter series.

AWAJI CITY, HYOGO PREFECTURE, JAPAN, November 1, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Anime theme park "Nijigen no Mori", located within Hyogo Prefectural Awaji Island Park, has announced the introduction of a new large monster, the fanged wyvern Zinogre, in the "training quest" at its limited-time attraction, "MONSTER HUNTER THE FIELD in Nijigen no Mori", from Saturday, November 2nd, 2024.

Visitors to the attraction inhabit the role of novice hunters arriving at "Awaji Assembly Hall", undergoing training to become skillful hunters. Training quests challenge hunters with "Field Research" and "Large Monster Suppression". Participants use action controllers and tracking devices to square off against on-screen monsters in the suppression area, using their whole body to manipulate weapons and avoid attacks in order to successfully defeat the monsters.

Participants receive "Hunter IDs", individual IC tags that log one's progress and can be brought back to the attraction for subsequent quests to raise one's "Hunter Rank". Challenging "Zinogre" requires a Hunter Rank of 2 or above, but lower-level "Rathalos" can be subdued with Hunter Rank 1, while higher-level Rathalos still requires 2 or above.

An "Extra-Large Zinogre Balloon" will also make an appearance at Nijigen no Mori. Fans of the series can come face-to-face with the fan favorite Zinogre and put their skills to the test in a fierce battle against the monsters of Monster Hunter.
