

BLUE FOX ENTERTAINMENT RELEASES SYLVESTER STALLONE-PRODUCED 'LOST ON A MOUNTAIN IN MAINE' IN THEATERS NATIONWIDE TODAY

The Balboa Productions feature tells the incredible true story of 12-year-old Donn Fendler, who's story captured the nation

NASHVILLE, TN, UNITED STATES, November 1, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Blue Fox Entertainment with Balboa Productions' releases the the gripping, inspirational feature film "Lost on a Mountain in Maine" in theaters nationwide today. The film stars Luke David Blumm (The King of Staten Island), Paul Sparks (Netflix's House of Cards), Caitlin FitzGerald (Showtime's Masters of Sex) and Ethan Slater (Wicked).

Lost on a Mountain in Maine tells the inspiring true story of 12-year-old Donn Fendler, who becomes separated from his family by a fast-moving storm atop a treacherous mountain. For nine days Donn fights to stay alive as he attempts to survive the unforgiving wilderness of northern Maine without food, proper clothing, or the knowledge of how bad his situation really is. His disappearance sparks a massive search effort that captures national headlines and attracts hundreds of volunteers, including his own father who fears he may never see his son again.

The film was produced by Sylvester Stallone, Braden Aftergood, Dick Boyce and Ryan Cook, with Heather Grehan, Derek Desmond, Stephanie Blackwood and Mario Nicosia serving as Executive Producers. Lost on a Mountain in Maine was directed by Andrew Boodhoo Kightlinger (Tater Tot & Patton) from a screenplay by Luke Paradise (Sympathy for the Devil), based on the best selling book of the same name, written by Donn Fendler. The book has been required reading for generations of 4th graders in the state of Maine.

Lost on a Mountain in Maine

Blue Fox's James Huntsman said: "We are incredibly excited to bring the true story Lost on a Mountain in Maine to theaters nationwide this November. This film is not just an adventure but a powerful message of hope and determination that will resonate with the entire family. The team at Balboa Productions, the truly amazing cast, producers and director Andrew Boodhoo Kightlinger, have truly done Donn Fendler proud by telling his story in such an authentic and heartfelt way."
