The background of the graphic shows a city skyline at night. Below the main title, there is a quote: "It's time the hospitality industry serves all guests equally. For instance, I'm often unable to access the spa, massage therapists turn me away, and most resorts overlook that I too seek these experiences." At the bottom, there is a blue button with a globe icon and the website address "www.handicaphelp.net".

Handicap Help founder Sgt. Jordan Teegardin advocates for equal access to luxury amenities in the hospitality industry, ensuring that all guests, including those with disabilities, experience true comfort and inclusivity.
