

A New Leader in Europe: Pyramid Global Hospitality Expands with Axiom Hospitality Merger

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, November 4, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Pyramid Global Hospitality announces the strategic merger of the company's European division, Hamilton Pyramid Europe, with Axiom Hospitality. The two hotel management companies are combining to create the UK and Continental Europe's hotel and resort management company of choice for the region's leading hotel sector investors.

The merger adds over 30 properties to Pyramid's European portfolio for a combined organization managing 48+ hotels and 8,000+ keys, with a strong pipeline of both existing and new build hotels and resorts. The new organization will build on its collective capabilities and experience to deliver unparalleled operational excellence. Following a period of integration into early 2025, the European business will be led by Axiom's Jamie Lamb and Alex Pritchard and supported by a best-in-class team of integrated hospitality professionals from both organizations.

"Our merged European platform with Axiom Hospitality will continue to enhance our focus on operational excellence and delivering results to our valued clients," said Warren Fields, CEO of Pyramid Global Hospitality. "In Jamie, Alex and the entire Axiom team, we see a management platform much like ourselves, with a shared sense of commitment to our owner clients and similar organizational 'people first' culture. We are confident that in the coming months and years the market will have the opportunity to experience our competence and professionalism."

“Alex and I are delighted for Axiom Hospitality to be joining the Pyramid Global family. We are excited by this merger and look forward to intensifying our commitment to delivering top-tier management solutions to the industry’s leading hotel owners,” said Axiom Hospitality’s Jamie Lamb. “As we look across both organizations, we see a combined business with a commitment to listen, enhance performance and deliver results like no one else can in the white label hotel management space.”

This merger brings significant benefits to both companies and enhances the suite of services being offered to hotel owners in the UK and Continental Europe, including a sharing of best practices, brand relationships, and access to additional global expertise and proprietary tools.
