Victor Gonzalez Herrera and His Contribution to UNICEF

This past February, as President of Dr. Simi Foundation, Víctor González Herrera became only the second Latin American to join UNICEF's International Council.

This global alliance consists of philanthropists who work to improve children's lives.

Championing Equal Access to Water Services

Through the Dr. Simi Foundation and in collaboration with UNICEF Mexico, Victor Gonzalez Herrera and his family have focused on ensuring access to water services such as sanitation and hygiene in educational centers.

The initiative centers on creating a healthy environment for children and adolescents in Nuevo León and effectively mitigating health risks and environmental impact.

Regarding this partnership, Victor Gonzalez Herrera stated:

“Today, through the collaboration between the Dr. Simi Foundation and SíMiPlaneta, we are developing strategies to improve physical, mental, and emotional well-being and providing education that enables children and adolescents to attain happiness. Education is power, and power belongs to the people. We prioritize actions, not words!”.
