-- On Wednesday, November 13, 2024, Subterranean in Wicker Park will transform into a sensory celebration of Chicago's culture as part of its 30th anniversary #Subt30 festivities. The Tastemakers Series invites attendees to an evening immersed in two of the city's greatest passions—culinary craftsmanship and live music—marking a fresh peak in Subterranean's landmark year.

Subterranean has always united music lovers, artists, and innovators. With Subt30 and The Tastemakers Series, we're merging Chicago's culinary and music scenes to honor our lasting legacy.”

Subterranean*

From 6 p.m. to 9 p.m., Subterranean will host a unique experience that blends the inventive cuisine of Chef Victor Avelar of Bar Sol with artfully crafted cocktails by Jephtha Creed Bourbon. The venue will be adorned with iconic concert posters spanning three decades of unforgettable shows, creating a gallery that reflects Subterranean's role as a cornerstone of Chicago's live music scene.

As guests arrive, they'll be greeted with dishes carefully designed by Chef Avelar, each harmonizing with Jephtha Creed's distinctive bourbon cocktails to bring out the nuances in every bite and sip. The evening's playlist will weave through tracks from artists who have played on Subterranean's stage, setting an atmosphere that resonates with memories of past performances and the vibrant future ahead. Free with RSVP, this intimate gathering invites guests to indulge in a truly Chicago experience that melds taste, culture, and community.

Robert Gomez, Subterranean's founder, reflects on the significance of The Tastemakers Series within the #Subt30 celebration: “Subterranean has always been a meeting ground for music lovers, artists, and cultural innovators. This event brings Chicago’s culinary and music scenes together in a way that honors our legacy of breaking boundaries and launching new talent. As we’ve given new bands a platform, we’re thrilled to introduce Jeptha Creed to our community. It’s a night where creativity and community truly come alive.”

Highlighting the evening’s drink offerings, Jeptha Creed Distillery brings its own unique story to the event. A family-run venture rooted in Kentucky traditions, Jeptha Creed embodies a “ground-to-glass” philosophy, with each spirit crafted from ingredients grown on their land. Guests will sample selections such as Jeptha Creed Straight Four Grain Bourbon, Bottled in Bond Bourbon, and the ultra-rare Red, White, & Blue Straight Bourbon. For those looking to taste something extra special, the distillery’s new Six-Year Wheated Bourbon will also be featured, showcasing the care and legacy poured into every bottle.

“Partnering with Subterranean for The Tastemakers Series is a wonderful match for us,” said Joyce Nethery, Jeptha Creed’s Master Distiller. “Our bourbon represents our family’s passion for blending tradition with creativity, and we’re excited to bring that to Chicago in a culturally rich setting.”

As part of Subterranean’s Subt30 celebration, The Tastemakers Series will unite the best of Chicago’s culinary and music scenes in a powerful tribute to the flavors, sounds, and vibrant spirit that have shaped Subterranean’s legacy. This night marks a milestone in the venue's 30-year journey, bridging food, music, and history in an unforgettable showcase of Chicago’s iconic culture. As the flavors, sounds, and stories fill the venue, The Tastemakers Series offers a night that captures Subterranean's enduring spirit and creative energy—a true feast for the senses.
