The new offerings are designed to meet the rising demands for robust identity governance and continuous compliance solutions. By partnering with YouAttest, CloudPSO's clients gain access to an automated and secure platform that simplifies access reviews, ensuring only authorized personnel have access to sensitive information. This integration aids companies in adhering to Zero Trust principles and improving their risk management strategies, in addition to satisfying regulatory requirements.

In conjunction with Klever Compliance, CloudPSO clients will receive tailored GRC solutions, including managed security services, risk management, and continuous compliance monitoring. Klever Compliance's unique approach in developing appropriated GRC Centers of Excellence aligns perfectly with CloudPSO's mission to deliver solutions tailored to each client's specific needs.

"We are excited to partner with YouAttest and Klever Compliance, two leading names in identity governance and compliance," said Walid Elemery, CEO of CloudPSO. "With their expertise and innovative solutions, we're able to offer our clients a new level of protection and regulatory compliance, allowing them to focus on their core business with confidence."

"YouAttest is proud to be part of this outstanding team and to share our expertise with organizations looking to strengthen their security and governance practices.” said Garret Grajek, CEO and founder of YouAttest.

“There hasn’t been a better time to leverage the strengths of three powerhouse companies coming together to provide comprehensive services geared to strengthen our client’s maturity and security” said Karina Klever, CEO and founder of Klever Compliance.

These partnerships reinforce CloudPSO’s commitment to providing comprehensive IT and compliance solutions for businesses of all sizes, from start-ups to large enterprises. As CloudPSO continues to expand its services, these collaborations will play a critical role in offering clients an integrated solution that addresses today’s complex security and compliance challenges.
